Remembering Ryan Theobald

Ryan,

In your sixth grade yearbook you were asked, "Who influenced you most in your life?" Your reply, "My mother."

Now here in your 8th grade yearbook I answer the same question. It is you, my dear Ryan. Through you I am learning the toughest lessons of life. You have taught me that life is so precious and should be lived to the fullest as you did in your short life.

Your mind absorbed all sorts of knowledge to share with others. Your enthusiasm for sports motivated so many of your peers. You are still our inspiration.

Your father told your brothers and sister "God has a special angel, a very smart and athletic angel, to guide and take care of all the other children who die before their time." We will never understand why you had to be taken from us so young, so tragically.

It was an honor to have you, held you, teach you, listen to you, dry your tears, take care of you, hear you laugh, hug you, kiss you and slowly watch you blossom into an extraordinary young man. You have sprinkled a piece of yourself on all of us on your way to heaven.

We will never forget you.

*Love,
Mom*
